Apartment is situated in the city center, very close to the Knez Mihailova street pedestrian zone. It is housed on the fourth floor older building, but with very well maintained entrance. Beautiful restaurants, coffee shops, cultural and historical attractions are all around this part of the town, making this location desirable for strangers and lovers of the busy city life. Public transportation provide excellent connection with other parts of the city. Apartment consists of the large living room, kitchen and dining room making a whole, and little storage room. Other part of the apartment is separated by a hallway, and consists of the two bedrooms, and nice, renovated bathroom with bathtub. One of the bedrooms is furnished with double bed, and other one with two single beds and two nightstands. Apartment is spacious and functional, with modern, discrete furniture and beautifully incorporated details, which makes it charming and comfortable.
