Beautiful apartment in the city center, near pedestrian zone. It is situated in the quiet neighbourhood because of the fine park in front of the building. The apartment is on the seventh floor of a building from the post war period, with the nicely maintained entrance and elevator. The two-side orientation makes this apartment very bright and cosy. It consists of living room with dining room, separated kitchen with little glazed terrace overlooking the Dorcol, bedroom and bathroom with hydromassage shower. The living room and bedroom have an exit to the mutual spacious glazed terrace with the view at the river and New Belgrade. Terrace has tiles on the floor, PVC windows, heating and it could be used for relaxation during the winter period. Bedroom is equipped with king size bed and large wall to wall wardrobe. The apartment is completely furnished, painted and clean, ideal for the peaceful life of the businessman in the city center.
