Attractive apartment with exceptional design, located in an ideal location in the city center, within walking distance from Knez Mihailova street next to Cathedral church (Saborna crkva) and the Kalemegdan park. The apartment is housed on the ground floor, of an older and excellently maintained building, with an elevator. The layout is practical and classical, with prewar elements and very comfortable. From the anteroom one can enter the spacious dining room with exit to a terrace overlooking the yard. From the dining room one can enter the other part of the apartment where is bedroom with a double bed and wardrobe, and bathroom with a bathtub. Dining room and kitchen are visually separated with a kitchen counter, and from here living room could be entered. The apartment is furnished with modern and antique furniture pieces made of solid wood with decorative elements on the woodwork and draperies. The special touch of elegance are numerous details that make this apartment very comfortable for life of a single person or a couple.
