Very nice and cosy apartment in the heart of the Dedinje area. Elite, residential zone, ideal for life of a family with children, because of close vicinity of numerous international schools. Neighborhood is safe and it is perfect location for housing foreigners, considering that this area has many embassies. Building is in a quiet street and in the walking distance from frequent square with supermarket which is open 24/7. The apartment is housed on the high ground floor and spreads over the whole floor. It consists of central, entrance hallway which leads into all of the rooms. Living and dining area have an exit to a large terrace, while kitchen also has a small terrace. There are two bathrooms at disposal, one with hydromassage bathtub and the other with shower cabin, three bedrooms, another terrace and storage room. This functional, cosy apartment is completely furnished in modern manner. Living room has a fire place and together with leather sofas and chairs makes interior comfortable and elegant even more. In the basement of the building there is a garage, while the backyard is available for all the tenants.
