Apartment located in the heart of New Belgrade. Residential block positioned near Stark arena represents an ideal living location. This position has good access to the highway, making an easy connection to different parts of the city, while the wide boulevards allow fast traffic flow, with public transportation stops in near vicinity of the building. The apartment is housed on the second floor an older building with an elevator. It consists of a hallway leading into the living room, which separated from a dining room and a kitchen by folding doors. From the dining room one can access a spacious glassed in loggia, which is equipped with a small table and chairs. Sleeping block consists of two bedrooms equipped with double beds. Bathroom has a bathtub and a washing machine, while a separate toilet is also available. The apartment is equipped with well maintained furniture of classic lines.
