The house is placed in a quiet street in Banjica area. Nearby are a large supermarket, green market, school, kindergarten, public transport stations, so the location itself provides all necessities for a comfortable life. The house is alone on a plot that occupies 1500m<sup>2</sup>. It spreads on three levels and has a nice garden organized in cascade manner with plenty of greenery. The ground floor is reserved for the living area which consists of a living room, a toilet, a spacious kitchen with dining area and access to the garden. Three bedrooms are at this level, that in the back side of the house becomes the first floor, and there are two more bathrooms, one of which is connected to the main bedroom. Attic is organized as a separate apartment, and can be customized according to needs. On the basement level there are a garage and boiler room. Only the high ground is furnished with classical, quality furniture pieces. Basement and attic are still under construction. A watering system is maintained by the special service which is paid additionally. Excellent house both for residence and for business purposes.
