Comfortable apartment with high ceilings, also can be adapted into office space. Located in a prewar building in a busy downtown street. The apartment is on the second floor of the five. It has a larger hall suitable for a small reception desk, from which you can access almost all the rooms. Three interrelated spacious rooms are facing the street, and one of them has a small terrace. Fourth larger room overlooks the courtyard and with the others is connected with four-part styled door. This room opens to a terrace that provides plenty of natural light. In the second part of the apartment there is a fully equipped kitchen, bathroom, storage room and another smaller room for various purposes. The apartment is fully renovated with high ceilings, very nice to stay. In the building there are only two apartments per floor. Parking place in the yard, secured with the ramp for tenants. Near the Tašmajdanski park, several diplomatic reprezentation buildings, City Hall and the Parliament, as this makes it the preferred address for business activities.
