An excellent apartment in the city center close to Slavija square and Manjež park. It is situated in the quiet part of the street and at five minutes driving distance from a highway exit. The apartment is housed on the second floor of a newer building with a security guard and a garage on the basement level. The building has nicely maintained entrance. The apartment is two side oriented and spacious. It consists of an large anteroom which leads to the living room interconnected with dining area and has exit to a terrace. Fully equipped kitchen is slightly separated from the living room area. First sleeping block is placed next to the anteroom where are two bedrooms with two bathrooms, laundry room and a toilet. Second sleeping block could be reached trough the dining room and consists of hallway which connects two rooms and a spacious bathroom between them. This bathroom is equipped with a bathtub while other two have shower cabins. The interior is modern, bright and air-conditioned. Comfortable ambience, with functional layout of the rooms is suitable both for residential and business purposes.
