The office space placed in the very city center, in business and residence building, close to Terazije square. This zone is rich in variety of cultural, business and commercial places. It is excellently connected with all parts of the city both with traffic lines and public transportation. Two public garages are in the near vicinity. The premise is housed on the fourth floor of the older building with an elevator. It consists of large office, as part of bigger business space, with common entrance ward, kitchenette and toilet. Office is abundant with light, suitable for business activity, but it requires adaptation.
