Building placed in a very busy location, in near vicinity of a railway and bus station, as well as Kneza Milosa street, which allows easy connection to all parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the third floor of a prewar, well maintained building. It has characteristic high ceilings. From the entrance hallway one can access a living room as well as two more rooms. Kitchen is separated and fully equipped with necessary elements. The apartment has a bathroom with a shower, as well as a restroom. From the living room there is an exit to a terrace. Space has been renovated and doesn't require additional repairs. Closeness to several courts and ministries make this space ideal for lawyers office or similar business activities.
