The apartment is located in a prewar building with specific high ceilings in a busy street in the central city area. The street itself is rich in commercial facilities: banks, post office, cafes, and shops with variety offer of goods. Public transportation passes through this street. The building is well maintained. The apartment is very spacious, functional structure, bright. Central room in the apartment is dining room from which one can enter all other rooms including the living room. Three bedrooms of different sizes, bathroom with bathtub and toilet are at disposal. The kitchen is separate, modern, equipped with all necessary appliances. The apartment is furnished with well maintained furniture in both modern and antique style. I has an exit to a beautiful terrace overlooking the green yard. The apartment is completely furnished but most of it could be taken out if needed. Ideal for comfortable life of a larger family.
