Excellent high ceiling apartment housed on the ground floor of a prewar building in the very center of the city, across the street from National theatre. One way street, with a lot of greenery and parking zone. At only a few minute walking distance there is a pedestrian zone, numerous coffee shops, restaurants, public institutions, banks and public transportation stops. Entrance into the apartment is secured with safety doors with bars. It has very functional structure, without hallways and loss of space. It consists of spacious anteroom and four more rooms. Biggest rooms occupy 18 and 17 m². Three rooms are interconnected. There is a new kitchenette at disposal as well as a nice bathroom with a shower cabin. Space has air-conditioning, a computer network installation and automatic roller shutters. Excellent address suitable for different business activities.
