An excellent, bright apartment in a prewar building in the heart of Belgrade, near pedestrian zone, Kalemegdan fortress, building of National Theatre and commercial zone. Facade is completely restored and well maintained. The apartment is fully renovated, with high ceilings; it has PVC external carpentry and restored inner carpentry. The apartment consists of a living room, two bedrooms, kitchen with dining area in the center of the apartment, toilet and a bathroom with bathtub. Spacious living room is equipped with cozy sofa, as well as two chairs and several wooden shelves in natural color. Kitchen is equipped with elements of solid wood, with built-in electric appliances. It makes a whole with dining area with dining table for six people. Bedrooms are both furnished with queen size beds and closets. The bathroom and toilet are spacious, with natural ventilation. Excellent location, good room layout and spacious rooms, distinguish this apartment from others from the offer. It is suitable for a family or young business people who want to be in center of cultural events.
