The apartment is placed in the house built twenty years ago, designed in a special manner, in the quiet street of Neimar hillside. It is located near Južni boulevard and Maksima Gorkog street intersection surrounded by family houses and plenty of greenery. This position provides easy and quick communication with highway and settlement near by, while Kalenic green market is in five minutes walking. The house has two apartments with mutual entrance. This apartment is on the upper level and consists of two bedrooms, large bathroom with bathtub, open space that contains living room, dining space and kitchen separated with counter. Living room has exit to the spacious terrace size over 30m<sup>2</sup> covered with roof, which is ideally hidden, tucked away from eye sight of passengers, with rustic elements and intimate atmosphere. Space is in good condition and comfortable. It is suitable both for life and office, could be furnished with stylish, uncommon furniture pieces, interesting for antique lovers.
