Nice apartment placed in the central part of New Belgrade, close to Kombank arena, location which is desirable both for life and work in. The highway exit is at minute driving distance, what is another advantage for easy connection with other parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the second floor of a well maintained building with an elevator. From the anteroom one can enter living room interconnected with kitchen and dining room and exit a glassed in terrace. The other part of the apartment are one bedroom with king size bed, smaller room with single bed and bathroom with shower cabin. The apartment is furnished with combination of new, modern and classical pieces of furniture in good state. There is a garage for a small city car close to the building which could be rented out for additional price. Suitable for a couple or a family.
