Excellent prewar villa situated in a residential part of Dedinje. Located in a quiet street, it is isolated from the city noise. There is a number of international schools in near vicinity, while in the neighborhood are mostly family houses. Location is characterized by good connection with the center of city and the freeway. Villa is placed on a 10 acre lot, which is rich with greenery and provides maximum privacy. Villa expands to four levels. Ground floor level has open space layout, which consists of a spacious living room connected to the dining room and the fully equipped kitchen which is open toward these two areas. There is also a bathroom at disposal on this level. Marble staircase lead to first floor, which consists of four bedrooms, one of which has an exit to a beautiful terrace overlooking the Kosutnjak park. A modern bathroom equipped with a bathtub is at disposal on this level. Second floor is an apartment for itself. It consists of a hallway which connects all rooms together, living room, two more bedrooms and a bathroom. Kitchen is separate and fully equipped. Second floor has an exit to three terraces. Loft has a layout similar to the second floor. It consists of a living room, two bedrooms, a bathroom equipped with a bathtub and a separate kitchen. This villa is very spacious and abundant with daylight. It is suitable as both a space for living and as an office space.
