An apartment on very nice, attractive location in pre war building. It is housed on the first floor of a building with characteristic high ceilings and an elevator. The apartment is designed as open space. Entrance directly leads to open space and further to two rooms mutually interconnected. One bathroom with a bathtub, toilet and kitchen equipped with basic elements are at disposal as well. Kitchen is interconnected with dining room, while next to it are pantry and another small room. High ceilings and lots of light make the atmosphere highly pleasant. Suitable for comfortable life or business activity.
