Pre-war family house located in quiet Senjak neighborhood, on a beautiful plot, with a landscaped yard. At the back of the plot there is a garage with a remote control door. The house occupies three levels and has three entrances. The ground floor and the first floor are connected by internal stairs, while the lower level (low ground floor) has a separate entrance and forms a separate residential unit. On the ground floor there is a spacious entrance hall that leads to a very comfortable dining room. Next to it there is a double parlor with access to a terrace. Two parlors are divided by four-winged door. This level also has a fully equipped kitchen, bathroom and guest toilet, as well as a beautiful, spacious terrace with seating. There is also a small room that can be a study or a children's room. First floor has slanted ceiling and features three bedrooms with roof windows and a bathroom. The low ground floor has two bedrooms, a bathroom and a kitchen. The house is tidy, painted, secured with an alarm and a glass breakage sensor. The windows are secured with protective grilles. The beautifully landscaped yard has facilities for children. Suitable for a family.
