Office space is placed on a high ground floor of a residential building in a peaceful street. It is in a wider city center zone, close to busy streets, which makes it well accesible from different parts of town. Building is well maintained, with good facade. Space has a separate entrance and spreads onto two levels, and each one is organized as open plan with restroom. It has installed central Mitsubishi cooling system, and it faces street side. Upper level ceiling is bit lower than standard height. Shop can be used for different business activities.
