Apartment with characteristic interconnected rooms and high ceiling, located in vicinity of Embassy of Portugal, as well as Israel. It is housed on the high ground floor of a pre-war villa, with a 15 acre yard. It consists of an entrance hallway leading to the living room with a fireplace and an exit to a terrace, as well as to the building's backyard. On the right side of the central parlor there is a bedroom equipped with a double bed and closets, while on the other side there is a children's room which is interconnecting. From here one can enter a fully equipped kitchen with a pantry. Bathroom has a shower cabin and a separate utility room with a washing machine. The apartment hasn't been renovated, it is equipped with a combination of classical and styled furniture. Ideal for a smaller family.
