Apartment is situated in a prewar building in the heart of Belgrade, near the bohemian quarter Skadarlija. The building is located in a small, dead end street that leads to the pedestrian zone. It is nicely maintained, with no elevator. The whole floor is superstructure from fifteen years ago, while apartment is fully renovated. The apartment consists of a central anteroom, which is interconnected with dining room and kitchen with an island as it's element, two rooms and a bathroom with a bathtub. Both bedrooms are furnished with anatomic beds, while larger bedroom has a sofa and a closet. The other bedroom overlooks Skadarlija. Apartment is equipped with new, modern furniture, while colors are in warm shades. Suitable for small family or business people.
