Warehouse is situated close to Novi Sad highway 4 -5 km from it, in the wide street without curves so the space is easily reachable. It spreads over two levels, ground and first floor, so it could be divided but the entrance would be mutual for both lessees. The upper level occupies about 70 m² of office space organized as two or three offices. Access to the warehouse is paved and wide about five meters, and the ceiling is three to five meters high. Warehouse floor is partly paved and rest of it is covered with tiles. Space is clean and dry so it could be used for archiving or storing goods that need dry conditions, such as books or paper products.
