The apartment is placed in the heart of Vracar, between Bulevar kralja Aleksandra street and Krunska street close to Faculty of Architecture. This location is excellently connected with all parts of the city by public transportation and city railways. The apartment is housed on the second floor of the prewar building and it is two-side oriented. It has characteristic high ceilings, about 3m and rooms that are mutually interconnected. There are three rooms or offices in the space, two of which are interconnected while all of them have individual entrance from the hallway. Third room is separated and has entrance from the kitchenette. Bathroom is renovated with shower cabin. The apartment is equipped with heating devices that uses electrical power and air-conditioner. The building is very well maintained and isolated what makes heating costs low. There is parquet on the floor, also tile and linoleum. Suitable both for family life and business activities.
