An attractive apartment housed in a prewar villa in Vracar area. Quiet street across the street from a park, and at only five minute driving distance from highway. The apartment represents superstructure, built during the 90's, which follows the form and elegant design of this villa. It spreads onto two levels. First level consists of a living room, which has an exit to a terrace which occupies the entire length of the room. Spacious dining room and a kitchen are separated by a hallway, through which one can also reach a bathroom with a bathtub. From the living room a staircase leads to a gallery on the second level which connects the rooms and can be used as working space. There are two rooms on this level, one is master bedroom and has a bathroom, a wardrobe and an exit to a terrace. Both rooms are have double beds. The apartment is furnished with interesting furniture in classical form, it has a lot of decorative details which enrich this unique space and contribute to it's artistic character. It is ideal for one person or a couple.
