Good office space, in a location that has excellent connection with the city center. It is housed in the ground floor of a pre-war building with a nicely maintained entrance. In the entrance area there is a reception desk. From there, to the right there are two connected and spacious offices oriented toward the street, while to the left there is a narrow but longer office oriented towards the building's yard where windows are secured with bars. Next to this office there is a small room convenient for a smaller office or storage. The space is fully equipped with office furniture, has halogen lighting and computer network, telephone landline for 4 phone numbers, currently 2 in function. It is ideal for office and administrative work. It is possible to remove the office furniture and use the space for other purposes. Rent fee for furnished premises is 1.100 euros.
