Older building, placed within Skadarlija, popular bohemian quarter of Belgrade. It is narrow city area, next to pedestrian zone and Republic square. Location is ideal for the ones who wants to live in center of city happenings, since the street is full of different popular restaurants and bars, and it provides lot of entertainment. Apartment is housed on top two floors and it has some unusual concept. It is fully renovated, but authentic traditional style is kept, with details like wooden beams, stone fireplace and furniture itself. Living room has exit to comfortable terrace viewing onto inner yard, which enables peace and quite although it is vivid location. Next to a living room are dining area and separate kitchen in modern style, as well as one and a half bathroom. First level contains master bedroom, hidden from view with nice paravane. Upstairs are two large bedrooms and one smaller, joint through gallery. Apartment is extremely comfortable and unique for its decoration and organisation, and it presents interesting option for living.
