An excellent apartment with characteristic high ceilings is housed on the third floor of the building, located in the very city center, near the pedestrian zone, the Kalemegdan Park, as well as numerous shops of famous designer clothes, cafes and restaurants. An excellent position for anyone who wants to be part of city's urban life. Authentic street with pre-war buildings, maintained facades, cobblestone street, and romantic street lighting. The location is near the Knez Mihailova Street, well connected with the rest of the city. The building is older, with well maintained entrance and without elevator. This apartment has functional layout, two-side orientation. It is bright, and completely renovated. It consists of anteroom which is a dining area and leads to all rooms. The living room has a balcony facing the street, and the spacious bedroom has its own bathroom with a shower cabin. The dining room is partly separated with a kitchen counter, fully equipped with quality elements and appliances. The guest toilet has a washing machine and a dryer. The other larger terrace overlooks the inner yard. Exceptional interior, spacious, minimalist and comfortable, bright and harmonious, makes this apartment unique.
