Perfect contemporary flat, located at very heart of Vracar area, close to Slavija square and St Sava's Temple. Only 15 minutes away from city center, also close to public transport or inclusion to the highway. Apartment is organized as duplex and it has two separate entrances. Upper floor entrance is directly from lift, which is specially coded for this floor. Opening from the entrance is large living room, whose spaciousness is additionally accentuated with large amount of daylight that enters the apartment through large glass wall, which opens to the terrace. Separated with the bar-table is modern white kitchen, fully furnished with fitted appliances. Second level has another, smaller living room and second kitchen. There are four more bedrooms at disposal, three excellent bathrooms and two restrooms. Top finishing works in interior design, excellent lights and glass walls make this property even more attractive for potential tenant. Furniture in the apartment can be removed if necessary. There are two parking spots reserved for this apartment, in the basement of building. Apartment is suitable for families, but also for modern young people who prefer to be in the center of city happenings.
