Three-side oriented retail space with four shop windows. It overlooks two streets nicely visible from many places. It is located in an excellent position, opposite the restaurant Lavina, in the central and very frequent part of the Belville settlement. One shop window overlooks Lavina, the other overlooks the Depot and two shop windows overlook the passage. It consists of two large rooms, a toilet and a storage. The area occupies 65 m² (49 m² is on the ground floor + 16 m² below it). Exceptional space, one of the few larger retail spaces in the settlement. Telephone line, cable TV, two air conditioners and roller doors.
