Excellent business space, well located, in the very center of the city. It is situated in a villa that is elegantly integrated into the urban surroundings. The well-known, prestigious location in the heart of the old part of the city, is easily accessible from all parts of the city, makes it desirable for the company's headquarters. The villa has a luxurious look, with high ceilings and tastefully designed for business purposes. Space has been well organized, with discrete indications of the industrial design of old times. The space is perfect combination old and modern style, providing a pleasant experience of work and living. It consists of six offices, a kitchenette and a toilet. Most offices are also interconnected. The space is for rent without furniture, and all working plug-ins are skillfully integrated into the interior. The space is highly functional for performing various business activities, decorated according to modern business standards.
