This fully renovated building is situated in an elite zone of Dedinje, close to few diplomatic branches and the British International School. Tucked into a centuries-old greenery, sheltered from the noise, it is an excellent address for families. The building has a small number of apartments, and each occupies half of the floor. This apartment is located on the first floor. Double-sided orientation and modern concept, with large balcony in the shade of trees, pleasant during the hot summer months. The living room is a whole with a kitchen and dining room. The kitchen is in the bar, fully equipped with integrated appliances and technology. There are three bedrooms, a bathroom and a restroom. Bathed in natural light and surrounded by greenery, this place exudes family atmosphere. It has a garden, and parking in front of the building.
