The apartment is located in a new building in residential zone of Voždovac. The building is housed in a small, one-way street with mainly family houses and small apartment buildings. Great location well connected to all parts of the city. Nearby are the green market and mega market. The area occupies the entire ground floor level, it is very spacious and tastefully decorated to the needs of modern life. The living room is with dining room as a whole and extends to about 60 m². Two oriented and bathed in natural light. In the central part is the fireplace, which gives the whole ambience a warm, family atmosphere. The kitchen is separate, fully equipped with all necessary technique, cabinets and small dining table. Sleeping area has three rooms. The biggest is with a double bed and plenty of closet, and has its own bathroom. The other two rooms have single beds and share a mutual bathroom. This beautiful apartment features an oval balcony to enjoy during sunny days. Interior equipped with quality elements, floors, ceramics, carpentry, plaster ceilings with interesting lighting. One parking space is reserved in the building's garage. The right choice with families or business people who love peace and luxury.
