Apartment is housed in nice, prewar building, in very center of city. It is one of main streets, extension of pedestrian zone of Knez Mihailova street. Although on very busy location, apartment views onto inner yard, and it is isolated from city noise. High floor provides excellent view and plenty of light. It is comfortable and well maintained space. Roomy living room is transit into two bedrooms, mutually connected through closet, which could be very convenient for communication between parents and children. Kitchen is in front part of apartment, separated and with dining room. Bathroom is smaller, with bathtub, preserved. Apartment has lot of closets and it is fully furnished, including small kitchen appliances, cutlery, bedding, as well as lamps, paintings and other details which complement interior. Furniture style is classic, pleasant and appealing.
