Post-war building in the heart of Belgrade, just behind the National Theatre. Great location not far from the pedestrian zone and the bohemian quarter Skadarlija with its famous restaurants of traditional cuisine. Also nearby are the stop points of all kinds of public transport with lines to almost all parts of the city. On a short walk away is the Kalemegdan Park and the banks of the river that provides opportunities to enjoy and walk on sunny days. The apartment is located on the 6th floor of the building. It is bright and comfortable, with a good layout. The central part is the living room which is connected to a dining area. The kitchen is separated and has a storage room. It is modernly furnished, with plenty of storage space. In addition to the living room is a working-bedroom, while the other two rooms separated and very spacious. One is equipped with a double bed and a closet, while in the second library and piano. Between these two rooms is a bathroom with a bathtub. Loggia is glazed and equipped with additional storage space. The interior is equipped with comfortable furniture classic form, air-conditioned. The apartment has a nice view of the surrounding streets of upper Dorcol. The apartment is suitable for families or business people who want to be in the center of city events.
