Small and cozy apartment, housed in a building from '80s, with well maintained entrance hall. Building is well positioned, close to business zone, Mercator shopping center, New Belgrade municipality building. In front of the building there is a small park, within walking distance there is public transportation stop and city center could be reached within about ten minute driving distance. Dunav river promenade is located within ten minute walking distance from the apartment. The apartment is fully renovated and modernly decorated. It has new installations and ceramics. Housed on an eleventh floor, it has excellent view toward city center. Living room is comfortable, furnished with modern furnishings and it exits to a smaller loggia. Bedroom is smaller, equipped with a closet and double bed. Kitchen is detached, with all power appliances and nice lighting, while the bathroom has a shower cabin. Very functional and tastefully equipped interior, dominated by pastel colors, with modern details which emphasize comfort for this property.
