Apartment is placed on a seventh floor of a nicely maintained building, built right after the war. Although on a crossroad of two busy streets, apartment is peaceful since it is on a high floor and it has huge terrace of 50 m², which is not included into apartment surface and which makes apartment abundant with light. It is only 100 m away from Beogradska building, public garage and shopping zone of Kralja Milana street. One supermarket and several fast-food shops are on a ground floor of a building. Several lines of public transport goes by in a close surrounding, which makes moving around the center very easy. Central part of apartment occupies spacious living room with dining area and comfortable kitchen, fully of sun and light. Living room has exit to a terrace, which is under eaves and gives ideal space for relaxation, but also provides great view onto town and river. One bedroom is comfortable, equipped with double bed and closet, while there is walk-in closet as separated room. Bedroom has exit to small loggia, and also has lot of daylight. Bathroom is very big and includes shower cabin and bathtub, while restroom is independent. Kitchen has modern look and all necessary appliances. Wood with pastel colours is dominant in decor, and hallway is fitted with granite tiles. Apartment is very pleasant and simple decor gives possibility of adjusting to own taste.
