Excellent apartment located in Dedinje, near a busy square. The apartment is only five minute walking distance from a grocery shop which is open 24/7, small green market and numerous cafes and restaurants. The building has decorated backyard with a lot of greenery, which is facing toward main street. On the back side of the building is a street with public parking lot. The entrance is well maintained and painted and the building has no elevator. The apartment is located on the third floor and it is completely facing toward the back side, overlooking the quiet street, with a nice view toward the greenery. It consists out of the hallway, which leads to first bedroom and bathroom, which is connected to large living room and then the dinning room and semi closed kitchen. The dinning area is connected to the sleeping block, which consists of two smaller rooms with single beds and closets and the second bathroom with bathtub. The apartment is fully equipped with new, modern furniture in white color. Also, it is clean and painted. The living room is connected to a terrace. It is bright and very comfortable, excellent for a families.
