The shop is located in a busy street in the city center not far from Republic square and many lines of city traffic which connect this location with the rest of the city. It is housed in a basement of an older building and has an entrance both from the street and from the backyard of the building. Shop is in its original state but it can be adapted according to the future owners wishes. There are two smaller windows overlooking the street, while the central ventilation goes through the whole shop. All rooms are connected with hallways. Space has two toilets and one bathroom with a shower cabin. It is suitable for various business activities.
