Well maintained, older house placed in a quiet street, which exits to a reconstructed Vojvode Stepe Street, with numerous public transport stations, leading to different parts of the city. Near vicinity of the highway inclusion, as well as Autokomanda highway intersection. Location suitable for family life or work, within about fifteen minute driving distance from the city center. House spreads over three residential levels, one of which is available for rent. Living room is interconnected with kitchen, which has a beautiful view through large window surfaces and a terrace overlooking the city. Down the hallway two more small rooms are placed, one of them has an exit to a terrace as well. There are also a bathroom with a bathtub and small bathroom with a shower cabin. House is suitable both for business activities or comfortable life. There is available one parking space in front of the house.
