Apartment is housed within two-story pre-war villa, with very nice exterior and fenced green area with gate. Neimar slope, not far from St Sava's temple is area with mostly prewar villas and low-rise buildings, which gives special charm to the surrounding and make this location extremelly attractive for living or working. Additional convenience gives only few minutes driving to the highway and several lines of public transport that goes toward different parts of town. Apartment is housed on a first floor and as a part of this peaceful surrounding, it is quite suitable from living or business activity. Comfortable central anteroom continues onto salon and three bedrooms, one of which is master bedroom, larger and with view toward yard. Bathroom is comfortable and equipped with jacuzzi bathtub and shower cabin, while restroom is separated. Kitchen is in modern manner joined with dining area and it provides exit to a large terrace, overlooking the yard. Apartment is fully renovated, with several preserved styled elements. Interior is very suitable for being in it for a long term.
