Excellent apartment in the pre war building. Location of this apartment is very good, between the Slavija square and main train station, and Beogradjanka building is situated in few minutes walking distance. Numerous embassies, state institutions and Courts of justice are nearby. Apartment is housed on the second floor building with nicely maintained marble entrance. It is completely renovated and consists of the large room, kitchen separated with a wall and bathroom with shower and beautiful ceramics tiles. Another part of the apartment consists of two rooms. First room consists of the dining room with another kitchen and this area is connected with another room with an exit to a glassed terrace. Bathroom, which is placed between these two rooms has an entrance from both. It is equipped with a shower and very attractive ceramics. Suitable for life or office.

Apartment is equipped with internet connection.
