Business space is housed in the newer house with individual entrance. It is located in the main busy street, and in the immediate proximity is stop of the public transportation. In front of the premises is small, around 40-50 m², maintained part of the yard. At the entrance is area designed for reception, and behind it are three offices, all with water connection and a washbasin. It is well organized, air-conditioned, with halogen lights and central heating. At present it is furnished as a doctors office, but it is suitable for many different activities. In the yard, at disposal are three parking spots.
