Excellent apartment in a quiet street in Vracar, and only about hundred meters away from the frequent Boulevard. The market is in walking distance, as well as public transport station, with the lines leading to many parts of the city. In the immediate vicinity there are numerous bars and restaurants providing a chance to relax and enjoy, as well as two theaters, so this location provides diverse content that meets almost everyone's needs. It is housed on the first floor of a building, which is well maintained, with beautiful landscaped entrance. It consists of one bedroom, with a large balcony that overlooks the street. The kitchen is separate with kitchen counter from the living room and fully equipped with appliances and dishes. The living room is connected to the dining room, while the bedroom has a king size bed and large wardrobe. The apartment is fully furnished with new, modern furniture, walls in pastel shades and a lot of details that creates a pleasant atmosphere for comfortable life. The apartment has a garage space on the underground level of the building, which is charged extra. Suitable apartment for a couple.
