Excellent, completely renovated apartment situated in the very heart of Vracar, in a quiet street. This part of the city represents one of the most desirable places to live on and has a variety of commercial contents. There are many restaurants and coffee shops in near vicinity, a well known Belgrade green market, as well as many schools and kindergardens, public and cultural institutions. The apartment is housed on the second floor of a high quality, well maintained building. It has functional structure, it is two side oriented and abundant with daylight. It consists of a living room, which is connected to dining area and a kitchen, a guest room, as well as three more bedrooms, a bathroom equipped with a shower cabin and a lavatory. It exits to two terraces and has two entrances. Suitable as a residential apartment for a family, or for a quiet business activity.
