Shop is placed in a busy location close to green market Zeleni venac and in popular area called Sava mala. It is in individual house which is completely renovated and occupies three semi levels of very interesting interior. Entrance is located on the upper level, which occupies around 30 m². From there one can enter lower, slightly smaller, middle level which has an exit to a terrace that occupies around 40 m². On the basement level there are lady's room and men's room as well as large a room with installations for kitchen and one more toilet. Shop is bright and suitable for variety of business activities especially for catering or coffee shop, having the advantages for this sort of business like isolation from other objects, number of toilets, and summer terrace.
