A shop placed on a busy location, with a great number of pedestrians passing by, at only a couple of hundred meters distance from the National Assembly. It has direct access from the street and has a shopping window. It consists of three levels, while each occupies more than 80 m². From the entrance one can reach an admittance area, from where a staircase leads to the gallery, as well as to the basement levels. The shop is modernly equipped and has two restrooms. It is suitable for various business activities, such as a retail space, office premises and similar. It has a few phone lines and internet connection.
