Shop placed on the ground floor of a residential building, within a settlement on Cukarica slope. It is oriented toward a small park between buildings and has a window which spreads over six meters. It consists of one open space, with a couple of supporting pillars placed throughout the middle of this space. Floor is covered in tiles. Shop has two entrances next to each other as well as restrooms for men and women. It does not have heating at the moment, but it can be connected to city heating system if needed. Suitable for various business activities, which do not need visibility from the street.
