Beautiful, completely renovated apartment situated in nice part of Vracar area. It is placed in near vicinity of St. Sava Temple, oriented towards the Karadjordje park and National Library. The apartment spreads over two levels, on the fifth and sixth floor of older but nicely maintained building. On the first level there are living room with adorable terrace overlooking the St. Sava temple which is connected to excellent kitchen and a glassed in little terrace suitable for a pantry.

On this level there is one bedroom, a bathroom with a bathtub and small room with washing machine and dryer. Upper level consists of two bedrooms one of which has an exit to a terrace, and bathroom with shower cabin. The apartment is in perfect condition as well as all furniture and appliances. The parquet is excellent, PVC carpentry with mosquito nets are on every window and nice quality ceramics. The apartment is furnished with new, modern furniture pieces in mainly white shades. The whole ambiance is extraordinary with cosy and fresh atmosphere. Suitable for modern man with exquisite taste.
