Excellent apartment in a new building close to Japanese embassy in New Belgrade area. Numerous lines of public transport and a highway connect this place to other parts to the city, while airport is at ten minute driving distance. The apartment is housed on the fourth floor and spreads over two levels. The first level contains living room, dining room and kitchen organized as one large space. Furniture is subtle in combination of white, black and gray shades. Quality materials make the space modern and cosy. Decorative lighting and glass surfaces with metal details make an energetic space with character. On this level is one toilet and a middle size terrace as well. Wooden staircase leads to the upper level which consists of two bedrooms, a bathroom with bathtub and a large terrace. The apartment is equipped with an alarm system, video surveillance and central air conditioner. One garage spot is at disposal suitable for any kind of vehicle.
