Attractive apartment placed on an excellent location in the heart of Vracar. Vicinity of streets with busy traffic allow easy connection to the rest of the city. Numerous stops of public transportation as well as diversity of commercial contents, stores and shops distinguish this location and make it highly desirable. The apartment has very good layout, two-side orientation, air conditioning and it is very bright. It consists of living room interconnected with kitchen which exits to a terrace with spectacular view toward the St. Sava temple and a yard. Kitchen is separated by a bar and fully equipped with all appliances and cupboards. Three bedrooms, bathroom with shower cabin, toilet and another large terrace oriented toward the street overlooking the Avala mountain are at disposal as well. Modern interior with simple elements could be decorated in various different styles, according the tenants wishes. The apartment is new superstructure, with floor heating and high quality elements. Good structure makes this place suitable both for residence and business activities.
